Kiley Ford arrived at Ink Realty via a career in interior design and architecture. As a Portland native and an interior designer, Kiley ensures each of her clients receive a personalized full-service experience, particularly with residential investment and rehab properties. After graduating from Cleveland High School and then Oregon State University with a degree in Interior Design, a top architecture/design firm helped Kiley launch her career. Today she blends her experiences and passions of real estate, Portland neighborhoods and design expertise.

"I enjoy everything about the buying and selling process, but identifying and providing advice on architectural design options to clients is an added bonus to my day . . . and it ensures a sound purchase with excellent return on investment for the client."

I've been with Summit since 2007 and originating mortgages since 2003. I grew up in Eugene and attended Oregon State University, graduating in '98 with a degree in Business Management. In my free time I enjoy golfing, fly fishing, and following Beaver Sports.

I'm licensed in Oregon, Washington, and California. I make it my priority to treat my clients fairly, while taking the time to help them make the smartest financial decisions. Being a part of the Summit Mortgage Team allows me to offer a wide range of programs and fund most loans as a direct lender, using our mortgage bank.

My specialty and focus is to educate my clients. I've worked with many first time homebuyers, as well as experienced homeowners and investors.
